bootable iso on a DVD disc, USB flash drive, or on a portable hard drive or SD card. WinXP SP3 DVD Bootable ISO
Download Note: For using this Windows XP SP3 DVD iso image, you must have a bootable DVD drive or USB flash drive for booting. A CD or DVD drive can be used for burning this iso file to a blank DVD, but a USB flash drive or SD card must be used for booting from. How to Install Windows XP SP3 Genuine ISO File Insert your USB flash drive or SD card into a USB port on your computer, or into the USB port on the back of the computer. Then, insert the DVD disc into your DVD drive or insert the USB flash drive or SD card into the USB port on your computer. Select the Windows XP SP3 ISO image and press the right button on the mouse or trackpad to select the bootable option. Then, press the space bar on your keyboard to select the bootable option. Finally, press the ENTER key on your keyboard to start the installation. Click on the setup.exe file that has been installed in the root directory of the downloaded files. During the installation, you will be prompted to enter the product key or serial number. After the installation, if the computer is running in a disconnected state, then press the ENTER key on your keyboard. Then, you will be prompted to restart your computer. You will now be asked to restart the computer. After the restart, the computer will run in the Windows XP SP3 operating system. You will be able to use your Windows XP SP3 ISO file as a bootable DVD ISO image. You can use the same installation process for installing Windows XP on a hard drive instead of a DVD disc. However, you will need to connect a USB flash drive or SD card into your computer and you must have a blank DVD drive for booting from. How to Save Windows XP ISO Files You can use the Windows XP ISO image for making a bootable DVD, USB flash drive, or SD card. If you would like to save the Windows XP ISO image for later use, you can download the ISO file for Windows XP and save the ISO file on your hard drive. If you would like to make a boot 82157476af
